

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF

Elizabeth B. Temple
Died Oct. 30, 1919.
Age 59 Years.

Gone but not forgotten

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled,
God in His wisdom has recalled,
The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Picture Family Bible

AUTHORIZED VERSION.

Moses in the Bulrushes.

[AUTHORIZED VERSION.]

THE COMPLETE TEXT
PICTORIAL FAMILY BIBLE

CONTAINING THE

OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS,

TOGETHER WITH

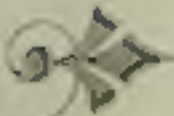

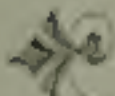

THE APOCRYPHA, THE PSALMS IN METRE, AND A CONCORDANCE:

TO WHICH ARE ADDED

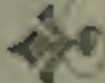

AIDS FOR READERS AND STUDENTS,

AMONG WHICH ARE A COMPREHENSIVE BIBLE DICTIONARY; A HISTORY OF THE BOOKS OF THE BIBLE; AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF BIBLE TIMES; A SPECIAL DESCRIPTION AND ILLUSTRATION OF THE TABERNACLE; THE PARABLES OF JESUS; A DEPARTMENT OF REFERENCE, COMPRISING MANY VALUABLE CHRONOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL TABLES, AND READY-REFERENCE MAPS; A HISTORY OF RELIGIOUS DENOMINATIONS, ETC.,—THE WHOLE SERIES OF AIDS BEING MOST CAREFULLY EDITED AND AMPLY ILLUSTRATED SO AS TO MAKE THEM OF GREAT VALUE IN THE DEVOTIONAL READING AND INTELLIGENT STUDY OF THE SACRED SCRIPTURES.

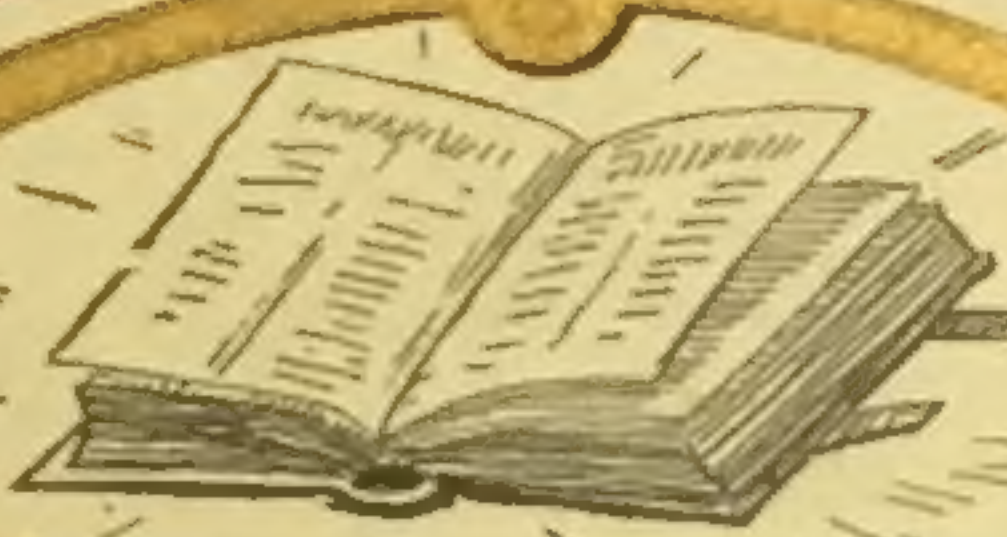

NEW YORK:
PHILLIPS AND HUNT, PUBLISHERS.

COPYRIGHTED, 1881.

MARRIAGES.

Thomas Bennett and Isabella Hawthorn 16th July 1856 ^{Cambridge} ^{Mass}

D. B. Harsch and Jane Bennett 20th February 1879 ^{Idem}

Thomas Bennett and L. A. Smith 2nd Oct 1883 ^{Kansas}

Thomas Temple and Eliza Bennett 25th March 1885 ..

John Edmundo and Sarah Bennett July 23rd 1886 ..

August Linse and Lula J. Bennett 7 May 1890 ..

William Van Gorp and Bertha Bennett Oct 16, 1891

E. C. Brown and Mary Bennett - 7 May 1890

John W. Taylor and Edna Bennett July 25 1903

Death of Mrs. T. W. Temple.

The community in general was shocked last Thursday morning to learn that Mrs. T. W. Temple had died in Omaha at 1:15 that morning. The cause of her death was heart trouble and she was apparently in good health when she left here with her husband that week to enjoy a trip to the northwest.

The remains were brought to this city and the funeral services were held at her late home Nov. 2nd, Rev. I. N. Faurot officiating, after which the body was taken to Seneca where interment was made.

Elizabeth Bennett was born in Mitchell, Canada, in 1860 on July 11 and was 59 years, 3 months and 19 days at the time of her death. On March 25, 1885 she was married to Thomas W. Temple the ceremony taking place at Seneca. To this union three sons were born and of these one son, William B., survives and resides in this city.

From Seneca the family removed to this city and have lived here twenty-eight years. Mrs. Temple was a valuable member of the M. E. church and also was a member of the Order of Eastern Star and of the Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. Temple was a woman of sturdy character and was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends in this community. A splendid wife and mother, she was also a helpful and considerate neighbor, kindly considerate and ever thoughtful. She will be sadly missed here and the sympathy voiced shows the universal feeling of all who knew her.

The following out of town relatives were present at the funeral services: Thomas Bennett, Seneca; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Kansas City; Mrs. Roy Christy, Axtell; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Taylor, Seneca; Mrs. Rose Steiner, Seneca; Mr. and Mrs. James Temple, Axtell; Will Temple, Whiting; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Edmundson, Omaha, Nebr.; Mrs. Jennie Haish, Seneca; E. C. Brown, Robinson.

CHURCH AND TOWN LOSE GOOD WOMAN

Death Came to Mrs. Jennie Harsh Sunday Morning.

The Seneca Methodist Episcopal church, local business circles and the community for miles around Seneca, mourn the loss of Mrs. Jennie Harsh, who died at four o'clock Sunday morning, September 18th. She had lived in Seneca for 69 years.

Mrs. Harsh always put her church first of all her activities. For many years she served on the church board and welcomed the new people to whom the church might minister. A Methodist nearly all of her life, she found great happiness in attending divine service. Sunday mornings found her occupying the same pew. She rarely missed a service. Her absence because of illness for almost a year, has been keenly felt by pastor and people alike.

Since the death of her husband, David B. Harsh, Feb. 11, 1917, Mrs. Harsh had carried on the fine traditions that he established, that of friendliness and accommodation to all. A love of home and children, an absorbing unselfish interest in her neighborhood and friends, were attributes of her busy life. No one loved company more than Mrs. Harsh. Even after she had passed the age of 80, she delighted to prepare a meal for guests. Her home was frequently opened to the young people of the church and the various organizations to which she belonged, the Maids and Matrons, the Loyal Esther Sunday school and the Women's Foreign Missionary society.

Jennie Ella Bennett, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bennett, Sr., was born in Mitchell, Canada on May 7, 1857, the same year that Seneca was founded. She was twelve when the family came to Seneca to share the double cabin that stood on the site of the J. C. Penney store, occupied on the other side by the Daniel Scoville family. She was educated in Seneca schools and on February 20, 1879, was married to David B. Harsh. They lived for a while at Lanark, Illinois and Warrensburg, Mo., but the greater part of their married life was spent in Seneca. Two daughters, Mrs. Rose Skinner and Mrs. Edith Taylor; a grandson, David Edward Taylor and a great-granddaughter, Mary Ann Taylor, all of Seneca, survive to revere her memory. She also leaves a brother, Thomas Bennett of Pacific Beach, Washington; four sisters, Mrs. Lulu Linse, Seattle; Mrs. Bertha Van Cleef, Los Angeles; Mrs. Sara Edmundson, Omaha and Mrs. Edna Taylor, Kansas City, Kansas. Three sisters, Mrs. Thomas Temple, Marysville; Mrs. Mary Brown, Robinson and Mrs. Lois Christy, Axtell, preceded her.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 2:30 in the Methodist church. Her pastor, the Rev. J. Joyce Wilson, will officiate. Burial will be in the Seneca cemetery beside her husband.

ILLINOIS CREEK

Frank Wilson has a Ford car.
Theresa Enneking visited a week with her grandmother and aunts.

Miss Geneva Clemens is visiting in Iowa and Illinois.

The Moyer Brothers have been believe farms along the paved road will be greatly increased in value.

Everyone will hold on to the land bordered by paved roads. Joe C. Wilson, fortunate in owning a good farm one mile from the designated Capitol Highway, offers $1,000 if the road will change the route to pass his place. And so it goes. In fact, all want paving. One farmer's wife who lives half a mile off the Rock Creek road when told the road had been allowed by the county commissioners with all strings off, exclaimed, "Good, that will put another $100 per acre on our farm but at the same time it isn't for sale." The road will al-soon be electrified, that with the rural route and telephone, Oh how Subscriber.

An airplane unexpectedly appeared in Sabetha Friday morning. The plane came from Hiawatha. The promoters originally asked a $500 bonus but came anyway when the bonus wasn't raised. Passengers were taken up all day at $10 a ride of ten minutes each, a dollar a minute.
The first passenger was Reg Newman. Alice and Ivan Robert each took a flight after Newman.
They are Bert Robert's children.
Alice fussed with the aviator because he did not go higher. Others who went up during the day were E.
Ewing, Adolph Weiss, Jr., Walter Cole, Chas. Rossier, Edward Walter and Clarence Scoville. Among passengers who did not make a flight was Ray VanZant, airplane server in the A. E. F. The plane went from Sabetha to Ellis City early Saturday morning. The plane is owned by P. F. Stewart of Humboldt.
Stewart is using the plane as a commercial venture. He has as his pilot Ben Brown of Iola. The machinist is H. Clark of Kansas City.

A farm house a mile south of Onelda owned by Bill Wright of Arkansas and occupied by Albert Sage burned to the ground Thursday afternoon. Little furniture was saved.
Mrs. Sage and four children were at home when the fire started. Sage acres of wheat that yielded over bushels to the acre. Twenty-acres averaged twenty-six bushels the acre. Both fields tested six pounds.

Ed Ramsey near Bern figured that he had to get $2.55 a bushel from wheat in order to break even.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes McNary, Mr.
Gertrude and Harry leave Sunday for Colorado to spend two weeks vacation. They will go in their Ford taking tent and cots for camping.

Miss Edna Stowell is home from Topeka visiting her folks. Miss An-Still is also visiting at home from Omaha. This makes a complete union of the family except for M.
Leah.

ELLS

brought his family to Seneca. She was educated in the Seneca schools, graduating from the high school in 1883. She taught several terms of school, first teaching in the Victory district the term following her graduation. She was married at St. Joseph on May 5, 1900 to E. C. Brown and since that time has made her home in Robinson. She was 51 years, 9 months and 25 days old.

The deceased was a member of the M. E. church, an earnest worker in her faith. She was a member of the Eastern Star Lodge. All the endeavors of her life she did wholeheartedly. Her mother died when she was 18 years old and for a number of years she devoted herself to her father. She was the mother of two children and foster mother of a stepson, whom she cherished as tenderly as her own. She was prominent in musical circles in the Seneca and Robinson communities, being gifted with a beautiful alto voice. No musical circles in the Seneca and her residence here was complete unless Mary Bennett was included in the role of soloists.

Tuesday afternoon, August 12 at 1:30 p. m. short services consisting of a prayer by Rev. J. B. Giltrow of the Seneca M. E. church and solo, "Face to Face" by Miss Alberta Scoville, were held at the Harsh home. The family then took the body to Robinson where funeral services were conducted by the pastor of the M. E. church of that place, Rev. Bolton, in her late home. Interment was in the Robinson cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, a daughter and a son, Helen and Merton; step-son, W. E. Brown of Gary, Indiana; father, Thos. Bennett, Sr.; seven sisters and one brother, Mrs. Jennie E. Harsh of Seneca; Thos. Bennet, Jr., of Tacoma, Washington; Mrs. T. W. Temple of Marysville; Mrs. J. E. Edmundson of Omaha, Nebraska; Mrs. Lula Linse of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. W. F. Van Cleve of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. J. W. Taylor of Kansas City, Kansas and Mrs. Roy Christy of Axtell, Kansas.

Thomas Bennet, Sr., Mr. and Mrs.

Christy and Mrs. Temple were called to Seneca and with the Harsh family went to Robinson where they were joined by other relatives, T. W. Temple, Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Mrs. Edmundson and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown.

DEATHS

Mrs. E. C. Brown passed away Monday afternoon, August 11, at 2:15 at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Harsh, where she was visiting. Mrs. Brown has been in failing health for some time, suffering from leakage of the heart and a congested lung. In company with Mrs. Harsh she was visiting at the farm of their sister, Mrs. Roy Christy, near Axtell when her condition became worse and she was brought to Seneca.

Mary Ann Bennett was born in Mitchell, Ontario, Canada on October 16, 1867. When she was a child of three, her father, Thomas Bennett, Easter Dinner!

"Let us Eat and Be Merry."

(LUKE XV-23)

The NEW COMMERCIAL HOTEL,
SUNDAY, APRIL 14, at 12:30, P. M.

MENU.

Mulligatawney Soup,
Leg o' Mutton, Caper Sauce. Fillet of Trout, Shoe String Potatoes.
Queen Olives, Branch Celery.
Sweet Pickles, Salted Almonds.
Prime Rib of Beef, a la Perigneux.
Loin of Pork, Japanese Sauce. Roast Veal, Cranberry Sauce.
Roast Spring Chicken Stuffed with Trusses.

EGGS ANY STYLE.

Fillet de Boeuf, a la Champignon.
Braised Ox Heart, a la Mode.
Boston Loaf, au Gratin.
Mashed Potatoes. Baked Sweet Potatoes.
French Peas. String Beans.
Yaba Corn. Tomatoes.
Potato Salad, Chicken Mayonnaise.
Dressed Lettuce. Green Onions. New Raddishes.
Pickled Beets.
Boston Steam Brown Bread.

—DESERT—

Apple Pie. English Cream Pie. Mince Pie.
English Plumb Pudding.
Delmonico Ice Cream.
Assorted Cake. Lady Fingers.
Bananas. Oranges. Apples. Mixed Nuts.
Tea. Iced Tea. Coffee. Lemonade. Chocolate.

Table or Seats may be Reserved by Calling at the Hotel Office
On or Before Saturday, April 13, 1895. Everybody come. 25 cents.